FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Friends,

As I end my first year as president of the board at the Jewish Federation of Western Massachusetts, I am reflecting on the past year and wanted to share some thoughts. Though not without its challenges, including emerging from most of the restrictions of the pandemic, it has been a wonderful experience. I think we accomplished a lot.

Reorganizing the board and amending the bylaws was one part of making our Federation more efficient and effective in serving our community and supporting the greater Jewish community regionally, nationally, and internationally, especially in Israel and Ukraine. The Federation truly makes a difference, and we are part of that.

I am especially grateful that we are able to hold the annual meeting in person this year. And I look forward to working with the small but mighty JFWM staff, many of whom are new, especially our new (and newly retitled) CEO, Nora Gorenstein, and to making next year even better for all of the organizations and people we serve in the Western Massachusetts Jewish Community.

Robyn Newhouse, President,
Jewish Federation of Western Massachusetts

FROM THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Dear Friends,

Since taking on the role of Interim Executive Director in August 2021, and then becoming the Chief Executive Officer in April 2022, I have developed an even deeper appreciation for all of the many dedicated volunteers, staff, community leadership, clergy, and donors who make all of our work possible. Of course, for most of us, these identities are not separate: as a leader, staff member, and donor, I recognize the ways in which our roles overlap and expand. The commitment of many of our donors also serving in volunteer and leadership capacities, and staff also giving to support our work, demonstrates that the Jewish Federation of Western Massachusetts is more than just a cause, a commitment, or a profession; it is one of our spiritual homes and an essential strand in the web of our network of belonging.

In the year ahead, I hope that each of you will consider the ways in which you connect with community and find fulfillment, and how you might deepen and expand your connections. There may even be a new project or initiative on the horizon from our Federation or one of our agencies that sparks your interest!

With gratitude,

A handwritten signature in white ink that reads "Nora Gorenstein". The signature is fluid and cursive.

Nora Gorenstein, Chief Executive Director,
Jewish Federation of Western Massachusetts

FROM THE DONOR IMPACT OFFICER

Shalom Friends!

Philanthropy and community building is at the heart of the Federation's mission. Your support enables us to meet the needs of the community allowing our community to remain connected and engaged. Continued collaboration and partnership in everything we do builds a stronger community in the present and the future.

Together, our Federation achieved a 2022 Gold Seal of Transparency with Candid. Candid is a leading database of nonprofit organizations that allows donors to know more about the nonprofits in their community and where they make an impact. When we work together to achieve our collective goals, with our Western Massachusetts Jewish mishpacha, what we accomplish is limitless.

Federation volunteers and staff, together with our generous donors, have dedicated themselves to addressing the most pressing concerns as our needs continue to evolve. The 2022 Annual Campaign, co-chaired by Molly Parr and Joshua Vogel, has been very successful in raising the funds needed to support our community in the year ahead. No other gift has the power to impact more Jewish lives than a gift to the Annual Campaign.

Looking ahead, I am energized by the abundance of generosity of our donors, volunteers, and community leaders to know that we can accomplish anything together. We were built to collaborate, support, and come together to provide for community needs, wherever they may be.

Wishing you and your family a healthy and happy 2023,

Mishnah Sanhedrin 4:5

What is J.E.D.I.

J.E.D.I. supports the Jewish communal ecosystem in creating a culture of belonging for all Jews and their loved ones while building bridges across socially and culturally diverse communities.

Why We're Here

If we are to be a flourishing Jewish community that supports thriving Jewish life for the 21st century, we must ensure that people see themselves in all our organizational leadership and programs and that we lead with our civic partnerships with the same integrity.

Why J.E.D.I.

I. Human Dignity
We Have a Spiritual and Moral Obligation

II. It is a Fact

We Already are, and Becoming, More Diverse

III. J.E.D.I. is the future

J.E.D.I. Leadership Development and Competencies

IV. Flourish

Thriving Jewish Communities is not just about some of us, but all of us

V. Recruitment, Retention & Relevance

Jewish Engagement in the 21st century Depends on it

VI. Culture Wars

Identity politics, splintered community noise not nuance, misinformation, fear. Lack of Divine spirit.

VII. We are made for this

The Jewish Tradition has prepared this generation for healing more than any other.

IN MEMORIAM: BEA LOEVY

by Nora Gorenstein and Jodi Falk

In times of loss, there are no words to adequately describe how each of us feels, but in our Jewish tradition we gather in community to remember and celebrate the life of a loved one and our time together.

On January 17, 2022, we lost a very special member of our community. Over the years, many of us have had the pleasure of getting to know Bea Loevy and her husband Jay, and have been lifted up by Bea's warm energy and enthusiasm. Bea demonstrated an incredible passion and caring for our community, the Jewish Federation of Western Massachusetts and its Women's Philanthropy and Rachel's Table programs, and the Springfield Council of Jewish Women scholarship program, all of which she participated in regularly.

In celebration of Bea's life, in 2022 the Rachel's Table gleaning program was named Bea's Harvest. Thanks to Bea's vision, Rachel's Table joined the gleaning movement 14 years ago. Designed to provide fresh produce to communities while educating people about hunger, Bea's Harvest has worked with over a thousand gleaners and harvested over 100,000 pounds of produce since its inception. Sarah Maniaci, former RT associate director, spoke with Bea early last fall to talk about her experience founding the Rachel's Table's gleaning program. Bea said, "I've done a lot of administrative work, but really, I love a hands-on project. Gleaning was a passion for me."

Each of us creates a legacy that we will leave behind, and we know that Bea's will be felt by many people and programs in our community. True to her zest for life and community, Bea continues to be celebrated in all of the many programs and places where her impact continues to be felt.

RACHEL'S TABLE HIGHLIGHTS

In the early Spring, RT gave a $5K donation in food cards to Jewish Family Service of Western Massachusetts to support the organization's New American Refugee Settlement Program. This is the second such donation to JFS in 2022 for a total of $11K.

The Growing Garden's initiative kicked-off its first season in April with a training event at Robinson Gardens in Springfield. Since then, four agencies have enhanced/created gardens with/for the people they serve. RT also began work with its second-year agencies and external communities. It also received a $75K grant from the Arbella Insurance Foundation as well as $300K from the U.S.D.A. over three years to expand this program.

In May, RT held its 6th biennial Outrun Hunger 5K race/walk and 1-mile fun walk in Longmeadow. This year's Outrun Hunger event attracted more than 130 runners and walkers of all ages! For the first time ever, this event was hybrid, meaning it also took place virtually!

In July, a group made up of RT and The Gray House representatives, as well as Carolyn Fitzgerald's family and friends, gathered to unveil a hand-made cart and plaque created to honor Carolyn — a beloved RT board member and friend of The Gray House. The gathering took place at The Gray House in Springfield, which provides food, clothing, and educational services to those in need.

In September RT turned 30. RT kicked off its anniversary celebration with The Pamela S. Finer Volunteer Appreciation Evening to honor its more than 200 volunteers for its dedication to the fight against hunger.

In 2022, RT was granted two $75K amendments filed by Sen. Eric P. Lesser and Rep. Brian Ashe, enabling the November purchase of its first refrigerated van and funding for its 2023 plans to expand its food rescue work and cover operational expenses. RT also announced a new partnership with MGM Springfield, and made these announcements at a ribbon cutting ceremony at MGM Springfield (pictured).
